Show & Tell

Annette Kennedy shared a trunk show of her art work, using fabric, paint, and quilting techniques. Her images are based on photographs she has taken. Many of her quilts are created from breathtaking pictures she took while living in Colorado! Her quilt tops are first created by fusing fabrics to a base fabric. Then she adds textile paints to increase the depth and to add detail. The quilting is her final magical touch! Her website is: Annettekennedy.com

Measure twice, cut once

WANTED:

Someone willing to give $500 for this beautiful “Heart-Felt” quilt below. Proceeds to benefit HCWC. Queen size, 75.5” x 82”.

We are thankful to

Sue Ponder for her quilt donation.

“Heart-Felt” can be yours!

On the left is called a “flange binding,” it is an additional narrow strip of fabric between the quilt and it’s binding for an extra pop of color and texture.
