Two people needed to help coordinate speakers and programs that are already planned thru next May. YOU can do it!

May Show and Tell

Stefanie Voss (above) made a “Color Me” quilt that children can color with washable markers. Kim Fess (below) made this her first attempt at continuous spiral quilting . I’d say it is perfect!

Susan Armer (above) made this strip quilt of many colors. There is a lot of time involved in matching up the blocks! Olga Harwell (below) made two wall hangings of Our Lady of Guadalupe from fabric that belonged to loved ones.

More Brown Bag Projects Revealed

Still more Brown Bag fabric entries!

We had 13 entries from our quilt members who used the fabric they were given in the brown bag fabric exchange back in October. There were all kinds and colors of quilts, wall hangings, and pillows entered! Everybody had a chance to vote for their favorite projects.

There were 3 grand prize winners. Congrats!
